

New Featured Topic on Fathers for Good Web Site

The Knights of Columbus' initiative on Fatherhood has moved into its second month with a new featured topic on the Fathers for Good Web site, www.fathersforgood.org.

"Involved Father" is the new topic. Dr. Richard Fitzgibbons, a Catholic psychiatrist, explains why fathers must be involved with their wives and children to fulfill their vocation and achieve personal happiness.

Also featured is a concise article, "8 Habits of Highly Effective Fathers."

The Fathers for Good Web site also includes:

- A video message from Supreme Knight Carl Anderson
- Podcasts by experts on love, marriage and family life
- Father's Forum for your comments and questions
- A "Good for Mothers" section
- A ballot to cast your vote for next month's topic.

Visit www.fathersforgood.org today, and tell all your friends about this new Web site sponsored by the Knights of Columbus!